Transylvania Library.

AS a considerable number of the subscribers to the Transylvania Library, have not yet paid up their subscriptions, they are once more requested to pay the price of their respective shares to the committee to receive the money, and to the same the proper certificate. The committee flatter themselves that a sum so inconsiderable—appropriated to a purpose the most laudable—outweighing nothing less than the general inferiority of mankind, will not need the assistance of compulsive measures to procure a compliance on the part of the subscribers.

JOHN A. SEITZ,
 R. STEWART,
 C. HUMPHREYS,
 M. BELL, Com.
 G. TROTTER,
 T. T. BARR.

N.B. Those gentlemen who are in possession of subscription papers, are requested to forward them to T. T. Barr. And those who have Library books in their possession, are requested to return them to the Library room as soon as possible.

Books may be had of any of the members of the committee at the rate of five dollars per share. Books of approved merit will be received in exchange. The committee will meet at the Seminary on the first Saturday in every month, at 2 o'clock, P.M. when the books are to be presented for review of merit, in case the same may be had for cash as above.

By order of the committee.

Six Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscriber, about the first of last September, a negro man named Ben, he is a stout, able fellow, about fifty years of age, he formerly belonged to Cad Slaughter, who lived near the falls of Ohio, who sold him to Col. John Campbell near Lexington, of whom I purchased him: he has a wife at said Campbell's and probably may be in the neighborhood: he has worked about Lexington and Georgetown; he has lately been seen at Col. Campbell's in the neighborhood of Lexington, he pretends to have a pain from me, but if he has, it must be forged. Whoever takes up said fellow, and secures him in any goal, so that I may get him, shall receive the above reward, paid by JOHN METCALFE.

BLAZE.

WHO was imported from England in the year 1793, at five years old, by Col. Hugh Nelson of York town, in Virginia, will find the ensuing season which will commence the 10th day of March, and end on the 10th day of August, at Col. Robert Saunders's tavern, Scott county, 3 miles from Georgetown, and 8 from Lexington; and may cover mares at five pounds each, the season. A promissory attested note, will be required with the mare, for five pounds, payable the 25th day of December ensuing—which may be discharged by the payment of twelve dollars, if paid within the season. Seven dollars the single leap, to be paid at the stable door. Young cattle, or good beef cattle, or merchantable hemp, will be received at the market price, if delivered at said Saunders's by the 25th of December, to discharge the 5 pounds.—There will be large and excellent meadows, well enclosed for mares from a distance, at 25 pence week. Great attention will be paid to mares, to give general satisfaction, but will not be answerable for escapes or accidents that may happen.

BENJ. WHARTON.

JEREMIAH WILLIAMS.

Burlington, England, Feb. 23, 1792.

A true copy of the original from England.

RICH NELSON.

October 23d, 1797.

We hereby certify, that the imported stall horse BLAZE, late the property of Hugh Nelson, esq. of York town, Virginia, and sold to Benjamin Wharton, is a true and good stall getter.

CHAS. HIGGASON.

THOMAS WOOD.

Laws of Kentucky.

An Act to amend an act entitled "An act to amend and reduce the several acts establishing a REVENUE REVENUE."

Approved February 12, 1798.

§1. BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That the act passed the 14th of December 1796, entitled "an act giving further time to entry-lands with the auditor and commissioners," which expired the 14th of December last, shall be and the same is hereby revived, and shall continue in force until the first of December next; and that the titles of no persons whatsoever to lands within this commonwealth, shall be impaired because they have not been listed in conformity to the said act.

§2. Where the lands of a non-resident have been listed in an improper class, or twice listed and paid for, under the same claim, and satisfactory proof made thereof to the auditor, it shall be his duty to place such lands in their proper class, and where such non-resident hath paid into the treasury the taxes accruing on such land to improperly classed, or twice listed and paid for under the same claim, the auditor shall upon like proof, issue his warrant to such non-resident or his agent, for the amount so improperly paid, which shall be receivable by any sheriff in any future taxes due from the said non-resident, or from any other person.

§3. Where the lands of a non-resident have been listed in an improper class, and satisfactory proof made thereof as aforesaid to the auditor, and the taxes thereon have not been paid, it shall be the duty of the auditor after placing the said lands in their proper class, to settle with the said non-resident for the amount of the taxes due on said lands when so properly classed. And where any non-resident hath paid the tax for 1793 and for 1794 at two shillings per hundred acres, he shall be entitled to a credit on the settlement of any subsequent taxes with the auditor, for the difference agreeably to the class in which such land shall be classed, according to the revenue laws enacted posterior to the said years.

§4. And be it further enacted, That all taxes for the year 1797, to be collected in the year 1798, agreeably to the said recited act, shall be reduced one third part, and the sheriffs and collectors of the public revenue, shall be governed accordingly: excepting the tax upon billiard tables, for each of which, there shall be paid annually the sum of twenty pounds, in lieu of the tax heretofore imposed on them, to be collected as other taxes.

§5. And be it further enacted, That every person keeping a billiard table, shall list the same with the clerk of his county, on the tenth day of March, if it be not Sunday, and in that case on the next day. And the clerk of every county within this state, shall, on or before the first day of July, in each year, transmit to the auditor of public accounts, and the sheriffs of his county, a list of the owners names, and number of all billiard tables so entered; and shall enter the same in some book of record in his office, and give a certificate thereof to the owner, which shall be deemed a licence; for all which service he shall receive the sum of three shillings, to be paid on entry by the owner. And every person who shall set up a billiard table after the tenth day of March in any year, shall be fore he shall suffer the same to be played upon or used, list the same with the clerk in manner aforesaid, and shall pay the same tax as if such billiard table had been entered and set up on the said tenth day of March in the same year, and the clerk of each county shall within four weeks after the entry of such billiard table, if it happen after the first day of July, transmit a list thereof as aforesaid to the sheriff of his county, and the auditor of public accounts; and the sheriff shall collect and account for every such table as aforesaid, for the full tax, until the tenth day of March next succeeding such entry; and the owner of a billiard table, who shall set up the same, and suffer it to be used or played on, without having entered the same agreeably to this act, shall forfeit and pay the sum of one hundred dollars for every such offence, to be recovered by motion, bill plaint or information, by any person who shall sue for the same, and in any court of record having cognizance of sums of like amount; one half to the informer, and the other half to be applied towards lessening the county levy, and accounted for by the sheriff as other levies are directed by law to be accounted for.

§6. And be it further enacted, That should the sheriff of any county neglect, or refuse to give the bond required by the before recited act, for the due and faithful paying and accounting for all taxes and arrearages of taxes; a collector of the taxes shall be appointed for that county by the county court, under the conditions and regulations established in the said recited act.

An Act to reduce into one the several acts concerning the ASSIGNMENTS of BONDS and other WRITINGS.

Approved February 10, 1798.

§1. BE it enacted by the General Assembly, That all bonds, bills and promissory notes whether for money or property, shall be assignable, and it shall and may be lawful for the assignee of any such bond, bill or note to sue for the same, in the same manner the original obligee or payee, might or could do. Provided always, That the defendant shall be allowed all discounts under the rules and regulations prescribed by law, he can prove at the trial, either against the plaintiff or the original obligee or payee, before notice of the assignment. And provided always, That nothing in this act contained, shall be so construed as to change the nature of the defence, either in law or equity, that any defendant or defendants may have against an assignee or assignees, or the original assignor or assignors.

§2. The fifth sixth and seventh sections of the act of the Virginia assembly passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and forty eight, entitled "an act for ascertaining the damage upon protested bills of exchange, and for the better recovery of debts due on promissory notes, and for the assignment of bonds obligations and notes." An act of the Kentucky assembly, passed in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety six, entitled "an act concerning the assignments of bonds and other writings," shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

This act shall commence and be in force from and after the passage thereof.

FUGYGHUR (E.I.) January 20, 1797

DREADFUL BATTLE.
Zemaun Shah had formed an army into seven divisions, endeavouring, by different roads, to surprize the rear of the Seicks, but, proving unsuccessful, had again united his forces. A most desperate battle was fought at Umroofter. It commenced at eight in the morning, when the Shah opened his shantar renzuls or wall pieces, mounted on camels, against the Seicks, and both parties kept up a heavy fire with match locks till two o'clock. About this time the Seicks, finding they had made no impression on the enemy, gave the signal for a general charge; and agreeably to their mode in close combat, flung away their turbans, let loose their hair, put their beards in their mouths, and darted into the midst of the Abdallah army, sword in hand. The two armies continued thus engaged for four hours, when Zemaun's troops gave way, and were pursued to the very entrance of Lahore. THIRTY FIVE THOUSAND MEN WERE KILLED!!! 20,000 on the part of the Shah, and 15,000 of the Seicks.

CINCINNATI, March 10.
By a boat which landed at this place yesterday morning, a gentleman received Philadelphia papers up to the 15th February, with which we have been favored, and from which we have extracted the following intelligence:

NEW-YORK, February 13.
IMPORTANT and SATISFACTORY.
By a gentleman of respectability, and of this City, arrived yesterday in 18 days from New-Orleans, we have the pleasing information, that the Spanish Posts at the Natchez and other places within our Territory on the river Mississippi, had been at length given up to the American commissioner, and the troops under his direction.

By this happy accommodation of the differences which have subsisted, we may expect the restoration of harmony in that quarter; and that the boundary lines will also be run and determined according to treaty, and alterations be thus also prevented.

[Several other accounts are received corroborative of the above information.]

PHILADELPHIA, February 8.

Thomas Paine has published a letter to the people of France on the revolution of the 18th Fructidor—after an encomium on the present constitution he justifies the measures taken on the 18th by the directory, as indispensably necessary at that period, when a faction was ardently laboring to overturn the republic. He concludes, with some reflexions on the present state of England and France, and asserts that the latter, notwithstanding the navy of her enemy, must prove victorious at last.

NORFOLK, February 3.

On Thursday arrived in Hampton Roads the frigate William, capt. Wells, 43 days from Lisbon bound to Baltimore. From Mr. Brandram, (a gentleman who came passenger in the above vessel) we have information that he read in a London paper of the 27th or 28th of November, an account of the arrival in London of one of the American commissioners from Paris, but which of them he does not recollect. He further informs, that he had it from the best authority that Lord St. Vincent with his fleet and the whole of the British troops were to evacuate Lisbon in the course of a few weeks. The queen of Portugal had forwarded 80 pounds weight of Diamonds to Paris in part payment of the sum stipulated for in the treaty made between her and France.

February 6.
At a late hour last night captain Colley, of the ship Flora, arrived in town from Hampton Roads, where his ship now lies, after a passage of 44 days from Guernsey. Captain Colley politely handed us London papers of the 11th, 15th and 19th of December; he gave a few to some of the officers of the British ships of war lying in the roads. From those we received we hasten to give the following crude summary of late European news.

That general Buonaparte and Joubert had arrived on the 6th of Dec. at Paris; that a great part of the army of Italy had returned into France; that a new conspiracy has taken place in Paris; and that a number of the conspirators were committed to the temple prison; that the Pope refuses to acknowledge the independence of the Cisalpine republic, in consequence of which 10,000 republicans are marching towards Rimini, to support the demand of the Cisalpine embassador; that every exertion is making in France to organize the army which is to act against England.—It is also said at Paris, that the Pope has entered into a secret treaty with the emperor of Russia; that the king of Prussia is dead—and that in consequence of the ratification of the treaty between Portugal and France, the English troops at Lisbon are reduced to extreme want.—Lord St. Vincent still continues off the harbour of Lisbon.

Of our commissioners, we have no other account, than what we received by a vessel from Havre, which had put into Guernsey, in distress, prior to captain Colley's sailing which informed that there were three commissioners appointed on the part of the French republic to treat with ours—and that matters would be amicably adjusted.

Lexington, March 21, 1798.

A letter lately received by the Editor, mentioning a disconcerted having taken place between the citizens of Detroit and the military, occasioned by some misunderstanding between them with respect to the dancing assemblies. A complaint has been presented to the governor of that territory, that where, it is hoped, the business will be placed in a proper point of view, and that unanimity will be restored to that place.

(HERALD.)

In the memory of man there never were known so many trials and capital punishments as there have been lately in the different circuits in Ireland. Yet when parliament meets, we shall no doubt hear that Ireland is in the happiest and most tranquil condition, that order and harmony are restored, and that all ranks of people unite in praising the mildness and mercy with which the government of this country is administered. (Lond. pap.)

Kentucky Laws.

THE printing of the KENTUCKY LAWS (or general nature,) in one volume has commenced, notwithstanding we have not procured the number of subscribers contemplated in the third condition of our proposals; and it is now reduced to a certainty, that the appendix, will not be added, which is contemplated in the fourth condition viz, "containing an abstract of the duties of a justice of the peace &c." owing to the extent of the laws. And as a number of gentlemen have expressed their willingness to become subscribers, if they could have any assurance that the work would go on—I take this method of informing them and the public, that subscriptions will be received at three dollars each, (one half to be paid down) until the last day of April next and no longer, at which time those gentlemen who have subscription papers in their hands will please to forward them together with any money they may have received from subscribers to my office. The price will be considerably raised on copies sold to non subscribers.

SACRED TO THE MUSES.

SONG of a Brother TYPO.

THOUGH riches circulate at will,
By coming and by going;
The printing art is nobler still—
Truth circulates by Printing.

Since truth is truth, at all allow,
It cannot suffer dimming;
Periphrasis errors rear her brow
When Tyants limit Printing.

Since Freedom's felt sometimes runs mad,
The thought is well worth musing—
Let useful hints be modest clad,
And then go on with Printing.

Dot Vice, you'll say, with hideous leer
At Virtue will be gazing;
Well, if vice frowns and looks so queer,
We'll stand her right with Printing.

ANECDOTE.

THE FORCE OF PREJUDICE.

When prejudice is once established,
In vain does reason re-aligner rights;
Few people can judge for themselves;
No wonder then that names have in all ages, made more impression than things.

When the fables of La Motte appeared, it was fashionable in France to despise them. One evening, at an entertainment given by the Prince de Vendôme, several of the first critics of the kingdom made themselves exceedingly invidious at the expense of the author. Voltaire happened to be present:—"Gentlemen," said he, "I perfectly agree with you—What a difference is there between the fable of La Motte, and the fable of La Fontaine!—Have you seen the new edition of the latter?" The company unanimously answered in the negative.—"Then you have not read that beautiful fable of his which was found among the papers of the Dutchess of Bourbon!"—He accordingly repeated it to them. Every one present was charmed, transported with it.—"Here," said they, "is the true spirit of La Fontaine!"—"Here is nature in her simplicity!"—"What a miracle has grace!"—"Gentlemen, reform Voltaire, you will find this fable among those of La Motte!"—"Repeat it once more," replied they.—"He did repeat it, and every beauty vanished—The fable was wretched."

The Wonderful Liquor.

The Chinese are weak enough to imagine, that there are certain persons among them who are possessed of the secret of preparing a liquor, which will make the person who drinks it live for ever, and whenever any of their friends die, who drank of this liquor, they think there was something wanting in the composition, which every succeeding physician hopes he has discovered. One of their emperors was confident he had purchased the immortal draught. He had a cup of this liquor of life before him, and was declaiming on the virtues and excellence of it, but while he turned his back, a favorite had the audacity to drink off part of it; whereupon the emperor, in a rage threatened him with immediate death: to which the lachrymose minister calmly replied, do you suppose you can deprive me of life, now I have drank of the immortal cup? If you can, what have you lost? If you cannot, I am become equally immortal with you. And, by this short way of reasoning, this wise favourite brought the whimsical emperor to his senses, when all other arguments seemed to be thrown away upon him.

611 Prizes
189 Blanks.
1,300 Tickets at 4 Dollars, 6,800
Not near two blanks to a prize.

The prizes, subject to a deduction of 15 per cent, are to be paid in one month after the drawing is ended, of which notice will be given.
Such prizes as are not called for within twelve months from the time the drawing is closed, shall be considered as given up for the good of the institution.

In case there is not a sufficiency of tickets sold to warrant the commencement of the drawing within eighteen months, the money is according to act of assembly, to be refunded; for the performance of which, and the punctual payment of the prizes, proper security has been given by the managers.

Tickets may be had of the managers in Lexington, and of several persons in Lexington, Paris, Cincinnati, and other places. Any person purchasing twenty tickets or upwards, will be entitled to a credit for one half the purchase money until the drawing of the lottery.

RASL DUKE, W. H. BRADSHAW,
FRANK TAYLOR, A. R. MARSHALL,
DAVID DAVIS, JOHN MACHIE.

The object proposed to be carried into effect by the assistance of this lottery, is to fundraise, and its utility is very obvious, that little doubt can be entertained of success in the sale of tickets; consequently it is expected the time of drawing will not be very remote.

TRANSYLVANIA SEMINARY.

THE public are hereby informed that Education may now be had at the Transylvania Seminary on as extensive a plan, and as moderate terms as at any school in the Union. There, together with Mathematics, Geography, the Belles Lettres, and every other branch of Learning that makes part of the usual course of Academic Education. The trustees have also made arrangements for, and will procure a French Teacher, whenever there shall be a sufficient number of Students desirous of acquiring that language. The terms of tuition are four pounds per annum. Boarding may be had with Mrs. Richardson of the Seminary, and in other genteel houses in Lexington, at a moderate rate of fifteen pounds per annum; one quarter to be paid always in advance—for this sum Students will be dieted, and their clothes washed and mended—they furnishing their own bedding, fire-wood and candles, in their own apartments.
R. BARR, Cler.

STATE OF KENTUCKY.

NELSON COUNTY to wit:

IN conformity to an act of the general assembly in this case made and provided, it is hereby notified and to be made known to Benjamin Davis, late of the county of Nelson aforesaid, that he be, and appear before the justices of the court of quarter sessions for the said county, at the court house in Bardonia on the second Tuesday in April next, then and there to answer to certain charges, complaints and allegations, to be exhibited against him, by and on behalf of Elizabeth Davis, his wife, (who was formerly Elizabeth Boone, of the county aforesaid, for some said Benjamin in having deforced her the said Elizabeth—of his having frequently declared and openly avowed his intention to abandon her the said Elizabeth forever, and for that the said Benjamin now lives, and hath heretofore, (since his intermarriage with the said Elizabeth done,) lived in adultery with another woman.

Witness, Benjamin Grayson, clerk of the said court at the court house aforesaid, the 17th day of February, 1793 in the 6th year of the commonwealth.
3W Attest, BENJ. GRAYSON.

The commonwealth of Kentucky.

To the Sheriff of Fayette county, Greeting.

Whereas Rebecca Green, at the last session of the general assembly of this commonwealth, did obtain an act entitled, "an act concerning the marriage of Rebecca Green;" in which it is in substance provided, that if the said Rebecca shall adduce such proofs to the court of Quarter Sessions for the county of Fayette, as that thereupon a jury to be empaneled in the said court, shall find that John Green husband of the said Rebecca, hath treated the said Rebecca inhumanly, deforced her for five years, or hath refused to live with her, and to contribute anything to her support: that in such case the marriage between the said Rebecca and the said John, shall be totally dissolved. And whereas the said Rebecca hath applied to me for a Capias ad respondendum, in conformity to said act, you are hereby commanded to take the said John Green, if he be found in your bailiwick, and him safely keep, so that you have his body before the justices of our said court of quarter sessions, on the second Monday in this present month, to answer the said Rebecca Green of the plea aforesaid: and have then there this writ. Witness, Levi Todd, clerk of our said court, this 5th day of March, 1793, and sixth year of the commonwealth.
8W*6 LEVI TODD.

TAKE NOTICE.

That I shall attend at a spring on Cherry's old Boyd's run, formerly called Bryan's, and lately Boyd's spring, in the county of Scott on Monday the 9th day of April next, with commissioners appointed by the worshipful, the county court of Scott; under an act entitled "an act to ascertain the boundaries of land, and for other purposes;" then and there to take depositions of certain witnesses, in order to perpetuate testimony concerning the special calls of an entry of 400 acres of land in the following words, "William Bryan assignee of Anthony Hawlow, enters 400 acres by certificate, &c. lying on the north side of the north fork of Elkhorn, on both sides of the Shawnee trace made by capt. Holders' men, going to the nation, including a spring on the east side of the said trace." Also of an entry on a preemption warrant of 1000 acres, in the following words, "Jonathan Hunt, assignee, enters a preemption of 1000 acres, adjoining William Bryan's settlement, assignee of Anthony Hawlow."
GEORGE HUNT.

ALLABLE to the last will and testament of Philemon Richards, will be sold to the highest bidder on the second Tuesday in April, at Bardonia, a certain tract or parcel of land, containing four hundred and twenty-nine and three fourths acres—the land lies in seven miles of Bardonia, adjoining Mr. Richard Parker's, who will sell it to any person, on application. Six months credit will be given, the purchaser giving bond with approved security.
DANIEL JAMES, and
W. RICHARDS.
